

INTERNATIONAL ACADEMY FOR LEADERSHIP (IAF)
Seminar Schedule 2019

DATE	TITLE	PARTICIPANTS	LANGUAGES	TARGET GROUP	JKT DEADLINE
27.01. – 03.02.2019	Creating and Managing Liberal Networks	40		Networkers from liberal organisations including local colleagues from FNF	15.11.2018
10.02. – 22.02.2019	Moderation: Facilitation and Program Design *reserved	24		Representatives of liberal NGOs, political parties and think tanks who are actively involved with or responsible for the design, planning and implementation of training and development sessions, or events. The seminar is best suited to individuals who have some level of experience in training or event scripting and planning	26.11.2018
10.03. – 22.03.2019	Foundations of Open Societies: Individual Self- determination and Tolerance	24		Politicians and members from civil society organisation, (human rights) lawyers, entrepreneurs, journalists, lobbyists, pedagogues, and people that provide policy advice (think tanks), who are fully acquainted with liberal principles and ideas and play an active role in politics	20.12.2019
31.03. – 12.04.2019	Liberals, Property and the Environment	24		Participants must have a background working for political parties, think tanks or the media. A background in business, economics or in environmental management would be most useful. Good grasp of modern liberalism is essential (there will be no introduction to this topic!)	21.01.2019
05.05. – 17.05.2019 e-Academy	Education in Crisis – A Liberal Way Forward With qualifying online phase *reserved	24		Liberal politicians and think tank members specialising in education policy, leading members of the educational profession and journalists covering educational issues. Participants must have a track record as liberals, seek reform in education and are open to unconventional approaches	14.01.2019
26.05. – 02.06.2019	Smart Cities and Modern Mobility	22		Politicians, city planners, architects, engineers, artists with liberal disposition	18.03.2019
16.06. – 28.06.2019	Liberalism vs. Populism: How can Liberals win?	24		Liberal thinkers and political strategists from political parties, think tanks and NGOs who are currently facing populist forces in their respective countries	01.04.2019
28.07. – 04.08.2019	Communication: Strategy and Skills	22		Leaders and spokespersons from political parties	20.05.2019

11.08. – 23.08.2019	Local Politics and Citizen's Participation	24		Local politicians like councillors, mayors or representatives of local party branches, Representatives of liberal NGOs and citizen groups who are working on improving local government (systems) Trainers or consultants who work with liberal political parties on local level	03.06.2019
01.09. – 08.09.2019	IAF Innovation Lab	22		Mid to senior management of liberal parties, NGOs, think tanks, power & mandate to initiate change in their organisations, experts on organisational development, campaign technologies or innovation; FNF Project Directors, Heads of Desks.	24.06.2019
15.09. – 27.09.2019	Promoting Entrepreneurship and Open Markets	24		Young leaders in positions of responsibility from political parties, the legal profession, civic initiatives, the media and the civil administration as well as entrepreneurs or representatives of business associations who are liberal in outlook and have a basic knowledge of what liberalism is	08.07.2019
13.10. – 25.10.2019	Safeguarding Freedom in the Digital World	24		Liberal politicians and policy makers, social media content producers, bloggers, journalists, liberal internet and security experts, educationalists	05.08.2019
03.11. – 15.11.2019	Strengthening NGOs - Management, Strategy and Fundraising *reserved	24		Representatives of liberal NGOs - such as economic Think Tanks, Human Rights Defenders etc. - who work in close cooperation with the Friedrich Naumann Foundation in their respective countries or regions and ideally hold a leadership or management position and are involved in fundraising activities	26.08.2019
01.12. – 08.12.2019	Campaigning: Strategy and Tools	22		Leading personnel from political parties who have a relevant position and expertise with regard to their party's campaign	24.09.2019
to be determined	Training for Project Directors (topic on demand)	12		FNF Project Directors	